

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

WORKSHOP “JUSTICE, INEQUALITY AND INCLUSION – ACCESS TO JUSTICE FOR MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES IN THE EUROPEAN UNION”

1) Date of the workshop

In line with one of the main objectives of the EDUC partner universities which is to encourage and strengthen cooperation in research, the University of Paris Nanterre (France) organises a three-days workshop next October, beginning on the 18th October, 2.30 pm, ending on the 20th October, 5 pm.

2) Objectives of the seminar

The seminar aims at exploring in an interdisciplinary manner the link between justice, inequality and inclusion, more specifically from a European perspective and with a focus on migration in the European Union. It will deal with three main issues:

- Access to justice for migrants and asylum-seekers in Europe : what is the scope of the rights that migrants and asylum seekers should enjoy? What are the various means and requirements under regional, international and national law to ensure the enforcement of those rights and provide remedies in case of violation?
- Which barriers migrant workers are facing in accessing to justice, including the ability to assert legal rights in the workplace and to access to mechanisms for legal redress or remedy ?
- What access to justice means for children in the context of child refugees and migrants (especially unaccompanied minors and young asylum seekers) ?

3) Who can apply ?

The call is open to researchers, professors, Phd regularly enrolled in one of the Doctoral programmes of the EDUC partners. The call is also open to Master students having a particular interest in the issues of migration and justice, from an international, regional or national perspective.

The applicants should be prepared to discuss and to participate in an active way in teams discussions, as the seminars will fully imply the participants in role-plays and cases study.

4) How to apply?

If you are interested in participating to the workshops, please send us an update CV along with a short description of your research topics at one of the following addresses: bcmyriam@yahoo.fr, evatheocharidi@gmail.com, marjolaine.roccati@parisnanterre.fr. Please also specify which of the workshop's topic seems most relevant for you.

The application must be submitted by the 8th September 2023.
